

1. In reference to Section C.2.1.1, "INSPECT AND SERVICE HIGH VOLTAGE BOOTH", is it necessary that the personal operating possesses adequate professional profiles to operate on MT (medium voltage) and AT (high voltage) systems?

Answer: Yes.

2. For the disposal in authorized landfills of waste classified as Dangerous (for example: lamps tubes) and Not Dangerous, is it necessary to have the "ISCRIZIONE ALL'ALBO NAZIONALE GESTORI AMBIENTALI"?

Answer: These tasks have to be performed in compliance with the Italian Law that regulates the matter.

3. Must the staff have the following certificates?

- Person in charge of first aid
- Person in charge of antfire
- Training course "Legge 81"

Answer: The Contractor and the related workers must have the certifications required by the Italian Law that regulates the matter.

4. Must the contractor have an elected employee "RLS" (Representative of workers safety) with certification training?

Answer: Same as answer to question #3.

5. Should Section J be completed?

Answer: Section J is a list of documents, exhibits and attachments that don't need to be filled out during the solicitation phase.

6. If so, how should Exhibit 9 Section J, be completed? Is it the attachment 4 mentioned in Volume II (page 104)?

Answer: Same as answer #5.

7. What should the bar chart in Volume 3 refer to?

Answer: It refers to the scheduled work. In this case it is not necessary since the calendar of the tasks is still unknown.

8. What do guaranty performance and payment bond imply?

Answer: It's a guarantee, from you to the U.S. Government that the work will be done properly in terms of time, quality and within the contract rules.

9. How is it possible to report contracts under NdA?

Answer: This question is not clear. The term "NdA" is not mentioned within the solicitation text.

10. What is an estimated frequency of the make-ready interventions?

Answer: Between 5-10 times a year.